Through an autonomous experimenting approach and use of strong materials Reflections Copenhagen pioneer the creative field to create the highest aesthetic designs, which unite exquisite materials and geometric shapes to form functional art objects. Reflections Copenhagen was founded in 2015, by Julie Hugau and Andrea Larsson.

The Reflections Copenhagen designs are balanced to challenge the traditional styles, colours and shapes of today's décor by adding new dimensions and possibilities to interior decorating. All irregularities and inconsistencies are part of the particular handcrafted character and elegance.

The initial idea to create Reflections Copenhagen came out of the mutual feeling that there was a need for something different, something to counteract the traditional and a desire to be able to create a fusion of dynamic Reflections, which appeal to unconventional ways of using the perfect combination of décor and art.

We challenge 'mass' perception and production in all our designs with a sustainable mindset, by contributing with high-quality designs, which sum up perspectives of how to provide new expressions through strength and form that lasts for generations.

All Reflections Copenhagen products have been individually hand produced with unique artisan techniques.

The cocktail glass is an obvious addition to the glass collection and is now a part of the Chelsea family, along with the Chelsea bottle stopper, with a matching design.

This collection is inspired by the decor and vibe of the 1970's and reminds us of a time of opulence and embellishment.

The newest addition to the Portugal Tableware Collection are two oval serving platters and two bowls. The colour scheme of the collection continues to match, while we keep challenging the possibilities of the graphic patterns.
